Dear Ms. Zyda,

Thank you for your recent letter telling me of your interest in doing a feature article on a retired CIA agent. I am sorry to have to tell you that the Agency cannot be of help to you in this regard. All former Agency employees are bound by their secrecy agreements, and therefore could not provide you with the kind of information you would need for your article.

I'm sorry we can't be of help to you.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
